Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

<sup>1</sup> There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:

<sup>2</sup> a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,

<sup>3</sup> a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,

<sup>4</sup> a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

<sup>5</sup> a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,

<sup>6</sup> a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,

<sup>7</sup> a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,

<sup>8</sup> a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

<sup>9</sup> What do workers gain from their toil? <sup>10</sup> I have seen the burden God has laid on the human race. <sup>11</sup> He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end.

Luke 2:25-27

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. <sup>27</sup> Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:
